2026 SURVEYORS' Conference

ABOUT THE EVENT

Get ready to connect, learn, and lead the way in land surveying at the premier event of the year! The Pennsylvania Society of Land Surveyors (PSLS) is excited to welcome professionals from across the region to its highly anticipated annual Surveyors' Conference in January 2026.

With over 600 attendees each year, this dynamic gathering is the go-to destination for land surveyors looking to expand their knowledge, stay ahead of industry trends, and engage with peers and vendors. Whether you're here to earn PDH credits, explore the latest technologies, or simply network with fellow professionals, the Surveyors' Conference offers unmatched value and insight.

Hosted by a trusted organization committed to advancing the profession, the event features expert-led sessions, legislative updates, and hands-on exhibits that highlight the tools and techniques shaping the future of surveying in Pennsylvania—and beyond.

Don't miss your chance to be part of the conversation, sharpen your skills, and elevate your career. Make plans to attend the 2026 PSLS Surveyors' Conference—where the surveying community comes together.

WHY EXHIBIT AND/OR SPONSOR AT THE 2026 SURVEYORS' CONFERENCE?

Don't just take our word for it—check out what our attendees had to say! "This conference is honestly one of the best I've ever seen," raved one. Another appreciated the vibes, saying, "The schedule was perfect for breaks and long lunches or dinners to network and socialize." And there was no shortage of praise from new attendees, "As this was my first conference, I thoroughly enjoyed all of it. The classes I took were informative and the speakers know what they are talking about. The casino night was a blast! I was also surprised at the variety and quality of the food."

For years, our exhibit hall has been a smash hit, showing off its unstoppable appeal and massive demand! It's packed with displays and demos of the latest and greatest in surveying technology, instruments, software, and support services. Any new exhibitors that register will be placed outside the Exhibit Hall in the hallway. We have sold all the booths in the Exhibit Hall.

And let's not forget networking! Our conference program is bursting with events that give sponsors and exhibitors a multitude of chances to mix, mingle, and chat with those in the land surveying profession.

It was a well-attended conference. The traffic at the booth was great!

BECOME AN EXHIBITOR

The PSLS 2026 Surveyors' Conference is the perfect venue in which to showcase your products and services to a variety of key decision makers who work and conduct business in the surveying arena.

Our conference draws over 600 attendees - not only from across Pennsylvania but also beyond its borders. The dining and exhibit hall will be combined like the last few years. Exhibitors will receive about 24 hours of exposure to attendees providing more opportunities to engage with surveyors and industry leaders.

Great news, exhibitors! The Exhibitor Passport Program is back by popular demand for its second year—bigger and better than ever! One exhibitor this past year stated, "The passport was a nice touch to promote engagement." This is your opportunity to increase booth traffic, boost visibility, and connect with attendees in a fun and engaging way. As attendees visit your booth and others, they'll collect stamps for a chance to win exciting prizes. Get ready to spark more conversations and create lasting impressions!
