

- Must possess intermediate to advanced computer skills
- Available to work in all types of indoor and outdoor environments

Primary Duties:

- Follow all corporate and job site safety procedures
- Adhere to ethical and technical surveying standards
- Ensure accuracy of all survey activities on all projects
- Ensure that field survey activities are performed in accordance with standard procedures and standards set by applicable state statutes
- Accurately maintain records; prepare survey documents, drawings, and reports in accordance with applicable standards
- Collaborate with senior staff in scheduling and coordinating field survey work
- Supervise use of equipment, preparation of sketches and notes, and electronic data collection
- Coordinate the repair, maintenance, and inventory of survey vehicles and equipment
- Represent Triad in a professional and ethical manner
- Interact with job site personnel (clients) in a professional manner
- Effectively communicate with clients, contractors, and professional office staff regarding projects

Physical Demands

Work is performed both in the office and in the field, which may include all weather conditions, often on busy streets or construction sites. Involves extensive standing and walking, and includes clearing brush, working in difficult terrain, manholes and on difficult slopes. May be required to push, pull, lift, and/or carry up to 50 pounds. Work may routinely require the employee to sit, stand, walk, climb, balance, bend, stoop, kneel, crouch, and/or crawl. The employee is regularly required to talk and hear and frequently required to use hands to finger, handle or feel; and reach with hands and arms. Required vision abilities include close vision, distance vision, color vision, peripheral vision, depth perception and the ability to adjust focus. Reasonable accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities, as defined by the ADA.

Triad Engineering, Inc. is a Drug-Free Workplace. As a condition of employment, candidates are required to take and pass a pre-employment drug screening.

Triad Engineering, Inc. is proud to be an Equal Opportunity Employer